

FACTSWHAT DOES INDEPENDENCE STATE BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?*Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and Checking Account Information
- Income and Credit History and Credit Score
- Account Transactions and Account Balance and Payment History

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Independence State Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Independence State Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes - such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes - to offer our products and services to you	No	We don't share
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions?

Call (715)985-3197 or go to www.independencestatebank.com

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Independence State Bank

What we do

How does Independence State Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

In addition, only our employees who need your information to perform their jobs are allowed access to it.

How does Independence State Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Deposit Money or Open an Account
- Pay your bills or Show your Government Issued ID
- Apply for a Loan

We also collect your personal information from other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes--information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

■ Independence State Bank has no affiliates.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

■ Independence State Bank does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint Marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

■ Our joint marketing partners include insurance and credit card companies.

Other important information

Independence State Bank maintains physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with the federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.